The Election in the City—The Official Result.

The election passed off quietly yesterday. Indeed the day was so uneventful that there was no crowd about the polls in many portions of the city, to even indicate the places where the polls were held. The vote cast was for a city of one hundred thousand population, very small indeed—the whole vote being only 6,720. Of this vote, McClellan got 4,875 and Lincoln 1,845—a majority for McClellan of 3,034.

There were very few who would not vote, believing that the result in Kentucky was beyond doubt—that McClellan was certain to carry the State, and that therefore their votes were not needed. Others, again, were deterred from the polls by the threats in various ways applied by the minions of the Administration here and elsewhere. By this species of intimidation many remained at home who should have placed their votes for McClellan—their acknowledged choice.

This will account for the meagre vote of the city. Indeed, feeling that there was no need of organization to carry the city or the State, none was made by the Democratic party. On the other hand, the supporters of Mr. Lincoln here, organized, drummed, worked, burnt powder, organized, shouting, cracked, and wasted an interminable amount of gas in the shape of "elegant speaking" in behalf of their cause and their candidate.

The Republicans, by all the appliances of men and money, and the vigilance of various committees, got 1,845 votes for Mr. Lincoln. The same amount of effort on the part of the Democracy, and getting out the vote of the party in some proportion, would have given McClellan a majority of at least 1,500 in the city.

CITY.—Yesterday was election day, and a wet one it was to some, while the closing of the barrooms made it exceedingly dry for others. Bryant must have experienced such a day when he wrote:

"The melancholy days have come,
The saddest of the year;
Of wailing winds and naked woods,
And mounds of snow and ice."

For an election day it was the most quiet we have experienced in the city for many years. Business seemed almost entirely suspended, and the police looked disappointed in not having more to do. We noticed very few persons who were any way noisy, save a few who regretted that they had voted for Lincoln. We heard numerous shouts for Little Mac, and heard only one copper-colored individual shout for "Lincoln," and he fell lengthwise in the gutter, having put his foot in a newswoman's way. The election passed off very quietly, as far as we could learn. We heard of no fights or foot-races, and at night the city was unusually quiet and awfully dark.

The pump on the southwest corner of Madison and Shelby streets is in rather bad condition, and has been so for the last three months or more. It has been repaired several times, but to no good. The top of it is to be kept loose for purpose of pouring water into it before any one can be supplied with fresh water. The proper authorities will do the residents of that locality a favor by attending to it immediately.

We were shown yesterday the only surviving one of five prisoners, captured by Capt. S. A. Jones, at Atlanta, and forwarded in a cage to our young friend Bard, in this city. Two of them got hungry on the road and eat two of their companions—hills, hair and all. The only one left was released yesterday, unconditionally, by Mr. Bard, who took the bottom of his hat and let the Atlanta wretch out.

FRATERNITY.—Our clever friends, Phil Judge and Mr. Robinson, made a success of raid on the Grand Prairie, a few days since, and returned to this city with their prisoners. They surprised lots of prairie chickens and other game, which they bagged, during their excursion. We would judge that Mr. Robinson got his phi-phi of the chickens.

On Sunday two rebels, named Cheney and Jones, were taken out of the military prison in this city and sent to Munfordville, Kentucky, to be shot to death in retaliation for the murder of a Maj. Murray, of the Thirteenth Kentucky Infantry, which occurred on the 18th of October.

The return of such as we could procure, or otherwise, we present our readers this morning. They must read them and draw their own conclusions as to results. We have no time to compare returns or explain them. Kentucky gives her vote to McClellan.

We noticed a lot of new, unshodded wagons, for Government use, lying on the levee yesterday. They were made in Cincinnati, and are to be furnished in the Government shops in this city and Nashville.

A jolly car, belonging to one of the gunboats, came ashore yesterday and "crashed" about until he picked up a full cargo of whiskey. He made safe port at Castle Thomas.

Persons suffering from diseases of the eye and ear should go and consult Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, who can be consulted daily at the Louisville Hotel.

One of the "Wiggins Committee" ran against a gentleman's suit up town yesterday, and then ran home. He had challenged a gentleman's vote at the polls.

Improving.—Little Meriwether, who was shot in the hand on Sunday afternoon by a boy named Clifford, is recovering.

HOORAY!—The Eastern mail arrived on time yesterday. HOORAY! HOORAY!

The Situation.

In our account yesterday of the disaster at Johnsonville, we stated that the steamer Highlander had been destroyed. This is not so. She is at Cincinnati undergoing repairs. Neither were the Government ships destroyed, and but one warehouse was consumed. There is no doubt but that a large amount of Government property was destroyed, and a number of gunboats, transports and barges have been destroyed, besides a number of lives lost during the engagement. The following is a correct list of the steamboats and gunboats destroyed: The steamboats were the Doane No. 2, Aurora, Goody Friends, Duke, Alice, Arcadia, Montclair, J. B. Ford, Venus, Mississippi, Cheesman, Nantucket and Bon Accord. The gunboats were the Lawa, W. Mann, Kyr West and Ben Guicy, besides a number of barges, which were scattered about in different places.

We have heard nothing additional from there since our last report, more than it is supposed that Hood's movement is merely a feint, and that he contemplates making a move in some other direction, then making an attempt to capture Johnsonville. Tennessee river, with the exception of that one point, may be said to be in the hands of the rebels. Nashville is entirely surrounded.

Of Gen. Sherman's movements we can say little; but it is supposed that he will make a move in a direction unlooked for by ourselves, and unexpected by the Confederates. In this State, the rebels and guerrillas at present seem very quiet. There were a few on Green river a few days since, but they have fled for parts unknown. There are very few roving bands in the State now, with the exception of the small towns along the Ohio river, and in some of the upper counties. Pete Everett was at Falmingsburg on Saturday night.

She Mundy and her gang have no doubt gone South. Guerrillas are pretty bold on the Kanawha river. At Owensboro and Henderson all is quiet; though the Confederates have not all gone yet. Our State will soon be free of guerrilla parties.

AN OUTRAGE.—Night before last, a number of soldiers belonging to a Kentucky cavalry brigade, went to the Two Mile House, near where there is a camp, two and a half miles from town and demanded some whiskey, from the proprietor, and upon his refusal to let them have it, they drove him from the house and commenced breaking up the place, drank the whiskey and seized out of the house, where they were a lot of ladies in the house, whom they grossly insulted, pulling their hair, &c., after which they were driven from the house and forced to flee from the infuriated men. They held possession of the house all night, and left about daylight yesterday morning. Such outrages conducted, should not be tolerated, and we hope the guilty parties may be made to suffer for it.

AMUSEMENTS.—Notwithstanding the inclement weather last night, the great magician M. A. Lister drew a first rate audience at Masonic Temple. His work was wonderful to behold, and his many presents given to the audience were getting. Go tonight and see his extraordinary performance, and purchase you may get a few presents by so doing.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Notwithstanding the excitement attending the election, and the unpleasant weather, a fair audience greeted M. J. Wood last night. He will appear in the "Flying Dutchman." Tonight the French Spy, one of her greatest impersonations, will be offered for the last time—the whole to conclude with (for first time here) the roaring farce of "The Thoroughbred." This bill should attract.

Mr. Harper's... a full house. On our table by W. Scott Gore, the great magazine and periodical importer. This number is the best that has been issued by the Harpers for some time. Get a copy from Scott before they are all gone.

BARACKS NO. 1.—Yesterday was a very dry day inside the barracks, but we encountered wet one on the outside. Only one deserter arrived, and one convicted. Sixty-five new recruits and two hundred convalescents were sent to Nashville.

Two or three men were arrested yesterday for drinking more than they could well navigate with. They were towed to jail to be put in the dry docks for repairs.

NEW SOLDIER.—Sixty-five new recruits arrived here from Jackson, Michigan, yesterday. They went on to the front.

Mr. R. O'Neil, of Spencer county, Kentucky, was released yesterday, upon taking the oath and giving $2,000 bonds.

There was very little done in military discipline yesterday. No military arrests of any importance were made that we heard of.

We are indebted to the clever Adams Express Company messengers for Indianapolis and St. Louis papers.

We are indebted to Thompson for Cincinnati papers of yesterday.

Billy Palford has our thanks for Nashville papers of yesterday.

THE LAST LETTER.—One of the unfortunate men who was shot to death on the 4th of September, near Brandenburg, Kentucky, in retaliation for the murder of Hickey, wrote the following letter just before he was shot:

BRANDENBURG, Sept. 4, 1864.
JUDGE STUART.—Dear Sir: I address to you this note of request, with which, if you comply, you will be amply rewarded, besides receiving the thanks of my relations, with some of whom you have doubtless an acquaintance. I am a son of Doctor J. W. Holmes, of Cloverport, Breckinridge county, Kentucky, and am forwarded here (I suppose) to stand for a crime committed by my laws and hands. Could I be allowed the privilege, I could easily prove my innocence of ever having wronged one of my fellow beings, and now is the request: I wish you to take charge of my remains as I expect my father on the first packet, and to whatever expense you are inclined, he will immediately reimburse. Trusting that you will comply, I subscribe myself,
Respectfully yours,
FRANK M. HOLMES.

P. S. Do me the favor to let father I request a preservation from internment until the whole of the family can assemble. F. M. H.

Colonel Swaine has issued the following order:

HEADQUARTERS POST OF COVINGTON AND NEWPORT, November 6, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 8.
In compliance with instructions from the Breckinridge Major General commanding the District of Kentucky, the shipment of hogs from the State of Kentucky across the Ohio river is hereby prohibited, and it is ordered that all hogs to be shipped across the Ohio river, be accompanied by a permit from the Major General commanding the District of Kentucky, and on and after the 9th instant, they will arrest any persons attempting to violate this order, and deliver them and their stock to the Provost Marshal.

On Saturday night last three guerrillas, said to be Harper and two comrades, called at the residence of Oscar P. Noell, about three miles from Gallatin, and relieved him, together with two gentlemen who were stopping with him, of what money he had. Fortunately for Noell and his friends, the amount of money they had was small. But it is said that, before the guerrillas left, Harper ordered Noell to pay over to him (Harper's) mother, by a certain date $500; threatening, if he failed to comply, to pay him another visit.

FRUITER.—Mr. George H. Ferris, son of Judge S. C. Ferris, committed suicide Monday afternoon, about three o'clock, at his father's residence on South Fourth street, Covington, by taking prussic acid. Deceased was about thirty years of age. He returned to this city a few months ago, from Colorado, where he has filled the position of Probate Judge for several years past. It is supposed the unfortunate man was laboring under a temporary fit of insanity when he committed the rash act.

PIKE EVERETT AGAIN.—From a gentleman who left Mount Sterling Sunday night we learn that on Saturday night Pete Everett and a gang of guerrillas went into Falmingsburg, Ky., and after committing their usual depredations upon the citizens, breaking into stores, &c., they set fire to the town and left. Colonel Adams and a scouting party left Mount Sterling on Sunday night for the scene, and had not been heard from up to the time our informant left.

"The Indianapolis State Sentinel" says: "Persons suffering from diseases of the eye and ear should go and consult Dr. Gardner, the skillful Oculist and Aurist. We consider him the best operator on the eye and ear in this country. He has made Ophthalmic and Aurist Surgery his study for years in Europe and this country." Dr. Gardner can be consulted daily at Parlor No. 117 Louisville Hotel.

Some three or four weeks ago a lot of guerrillas made a raid upon the Northwestern railroad, a short distance south of Nashville. At a little station (no name) a squad of six or seven negro soldiers were caught and every one of their heads severed from their bodies and left lying on the platform of the depot.

On Thursday night a little child was strangled in church, and was found smothered to death in the bed next morning.

A man named Morton was stabbed and killed in a political quarrel in Cincinnati Tuesday night.

We have several hundred odd papers for sale—good as new for wrapping paper.

One hundred and ten cases of goods in the millinery and dress-making line have arrived at O'Leary & Co.'s wholesale millinery establishment during the latter part of last week.

The customers who have been visiting their customers here, added to the demand for goods for all kinds of goods in Nashville, Knoxville and Memphis, have induced them to buy largely in the East.

Their customers are well aware of the assortment they keep on hand, and the prices they sell at, and although goods are steady now, yet they will continue to sell at last month's prices till further notice.

O'Leary & Co. have a wholesale millinery store in Nashville, Memphis and Knoxville, and consequently have every advantage offered of large purchases.
